$365,000

If you're searching for the ultimate student housing or a rock-solid income property, look no further! This 2 Bedroom, 2 Bathroom condo is located directly across from Okanagan College - you quite literally can't get any closer to campus. For students, that means unmatched convenience. For investors, it means reliable, year-round rental demand in a high demand area. The spacious, open-concept layout features a central living area with a cozy fireplace, two full bathrooms (including a private ensuite) and climate control with gas heating and central air. The bedrooms are connected, making it ideal for roommates, couples, or solo living with a quest room or study. Step outside and you're minutes from Kelowna General Hospital, Mission Creek Greenway and the H2O Adventure & Fitness Centre - making this property attractive to students, healthcare, workers, and professionals alike. Whether you're securing a place for your student or expanding your investment portfolio, this is one property you don't want to miss. Opportunities like this don't stay on the market for long.
