

This 3.675-acre, multi-family zoned property is one of a very few currently zoned properties available in Kitimat. Centrally located with access directly on to main roads Alexander and Nalabila, this property has a prime location surrounded by residential development. Fully cleared and leveled with utilities at lot line, this property is ready for your development opportunities to be presented to the city for approval! This is definitely a gem of a property looking for your ideas, with high housing demand Kitimat has low unemployment and high wages to support strong demand for new housing. (id:6769)
