Very solid and well cared for home. The kitchen has ample cabinets and counter space. The seller is in the middle of some upgrades in the basement but the materials and flooring will be left for the new owner. The yard is completely fenced. There is a wooden deck in the back yard. The garage is fully insulated. There have been numerous upgrades over the year such as plumbing, kitchen cabinets and counter tops, some windows and doors, and the fence as is wooden but supported by steel posts. As mentioned the seller is in the middle of basement renovations. Must be seen to be appreciated. (id:6769)
