Come across this hidden gem of a West Coast Contemporary home, offering stunning lake views on more than an acre of land. You'll find plenty of parking on the flat driveway, tucked away in the captivating Trepanier Heights. Take a tour of the property, soaking in the beauty of the surroundings and the home itself. This place isn't just a home--it's an opportunity. Perfect for running a successful B&B business, thanks to its track record of success (previous owners were charging almost $900/night in high season). Basement could easily be turned in to a bachelor suite. The entire top floor of this home is your own private primary suite - complete with it's own deck. With various upgrades, this property has endless charm and seclusion. But to really get it, you've got to come see it. Come experience the sheer magnificence of this property, with its vast outdoor space, endless skies, and countless wonderful features. (id:6769)
