So much to love in this fully finished split-entry home... Start with the main floor, where we have 2 decent-sized bedrooms and a full bathroom. The living room is large and bright, with an awesome picture window. A fabulous oak kitchen with an abundance of cabinets sits adjacent to a family-sized dining area, and from there a door takes you out to the back deck (with privacy fence) and spacious backyard. That's not all! The daylight basement has a huge family room, fantastic den/gaming room, two additional bedrooms, 3-piece bathroom, and a laundry room you can close the door to when you just don't want to look at that chore. The driveway provides ample parking, and the neighborhood has a mix of families, so you will immediately feel at home. (id:6769)
