Step right into a comfortable home for you and your family to make memories in. This one offers a fenced and level backyard with a couple of shade trees and a front sundeck that will look ultra-charming when you adorn it with your personal touches. Inside, a kitchen with cheery white cabinets opens into a generous dining area, which flows seamlessly into the inviting living room. Three bedrooms and a full bathroom round out the main floor, while the concrete basement is a 960 square foot blank slate for you to create exactly what your family wants and needs as you grow. Metal roof, updated windows, and hard surface flooring all help this home stand out from the pack. (id:6769)
