Scandinavian by design and functionality this brightly lit home featuring warm woods, cool soft textures and high quality construction techniques stands the test of time. Family dining offers options to be near the chef's kitchen, sunroom for those early spring days or covered deck overlooking a carefree yard. Two floors invite guests to stay and play, golf course across the street, lake down the way. Plenty of RV parking. A family friendly community that brings people together with a common cause of enjoying their best life! (id:6769)
