SASK. REALTOR

There really are no words to describe this home and the numerous upgrades added onto to this property at the building stage. There are very few homes finished like this one in the City of Regina. This exceptionally well-built walk-out bungalow backs the Goulet Golf Course with a 180 degree view from the upper balcony off of the dining room and from the stone-terraced yard. When you enter this home enjoy the stretched ceilings, the ceramic tile floors. The floor tiles and bathroom tiles are imported from Spain and installed by European craftsmen. There is in-floor heating in both bathrooms. Hardwood floors flow from the living room through the dining room to the hallways and to the bedrooms. The basement is wide open for development. There is a double attached garage with direct entry into the mud room with built-in storage cabinets. If you want a stunning and unique home backing a golf course with an amazing view then look no further. (id:6769)
