$49,500

For your consideration, here is a 0.19 acre undeveloped city lot with all the services at the lot line! Minimal site clearing is needed to plunk down a home and continue on with your day with this relatively flat city lot. With the proper planning, one might even get a nice view of the city below and the surrounding Fraser River valley. The sellers are motivated! This undeveloped property could be your opportunity to break into the market or develop an affordable rental home. Options galore! (id:6769)
