

12006 Sinclair Road Summerland British Columbia

$1,150,000

This residence is an exceptional choice not only for its wheelchair-friendly features, including wide doorways and spacious hallways, but also for families seeking a versatile property that can accommodate income opportunities or multi-generational living. The open, well-lit floor plan includes a kitchen brimming with storage and new stainless-steel appliances. It offers three bedrooms plus an office, with two bedrooms boasting ensuite facilities and the third next to a 4-piece bathroom. The primary suite can be modified for greater privacy with minimal changes. The master bedroom's separate entrance enhances its potential as a distinct rental space or an in-law suite. The enchanting backyard features varied raised garden beds, an elegant stamped concrete patio with an electric awning, and views of Giant's Head Mountain, ensuring a pleasant environment for all residents. The driveway has ample parking, plus RV space. Adding significant value is the modern carriage house, constructed in 2019, which includes two bedrooms, 1.5 bathrooms, a well-organized kitchen, and a side entrance with ramp access. It offers privacy with its own yard, apricot and peach trees, a patio with electric awning, and separate parking, making it perfect for additional rental income, a guest house, or family members needing their own space.
