

1301 Lewis Road Kelowna British Columbia

$1,490,000

Must See! This beautiful property features a custom renovated home boasting breathtaking views of the lake, mountains, farmlands and valley. Don't miss out on your chance to own 1.57 acres in a prime location close to many amenities and already zoned for a carriage house. The newly completed renovations include a new addition with a large master ensuite, walk-in closet, carport, and storage area. The ensuite features vaulted ceilings, in-floor heating, a coffee bar, a freestanding soaker tub, and a fully custom steam shower with a 6'2" bench to lay down and enjoy. The carport has 9' clearance and has two motorized roll-up doors going into the attached storage area. The storage area has been roughed in for a 50 amp electric car charging station and has two separate dedicated electrical circuits - one for fridge/freezer and the other for a pressure washer and includes a hot/cold hose bib. The guest suite is perfect for short-term rentals, a private office or it is designed to easily open up as an additional bedroom for the main residence. Also on site is a workshop and two storage sheds. With a long list of additional features from the extra insulation, thicker 1/2 inch plywood, to the custom finished crawl space containing specialty membrane, radon system, dehumidifier, hot-tub rough-in, ethernet Cat 6 cables for security, and much more. Everything has been thought of for this outstanding property. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity. (id:6769)
