

900 Lamont Lane Kelowna British Columbia

$1,899,900

Do you value authentic quality of life and quality craftsmanship? Do you see yourself relaxing at sunset with a glass of wine on your expansive deck enjoying a panoramic view of the lake and valley after a day out on the water? This could be the home you have worked so hard to deserve... A walk around the low maintenance exterior of this home will show you how very well maintained this property is. Like new is an overused term that genuinely fits here, both inside & out. You will also notice the on-site boat / RV parking and the oversized triple garage. When you step inside you will be captivated by the two million dollar view! Recent sales have shown Lamont Lane to have a view that discerning Buyers will happily pay over two million dollars for. You must see it in person to understand why. By day you will be inspired by the ever changing beauty of nature. At night the sunsets and city lights will soothe and serenade you. It is truly awe inspiring. The interior of this immaculate home offers tasteful updates, quality of build and thoughtful design blended to create a high quality living space that is as beautiful, as it is functional. Floor plans and full details of this property are available upon request. However we strongly recommend that you come and experience this property for yourself. Bring your tape measure because your convertible, motorbikes, boat & RV will all fit here! (id:6769)
