

621 Elliot Avenue Kelowna British Columbia

Kelowna South

$1,599,900

Welcome to this rare opportunity of prime development property situated on large flat .29/acre parcel fronting two streets! Huge 6 plex potential in prime location in highly desirable Kelowna South. With recent zoning changed to MF4, this property is ripe for redevelopment. Perfectly located just blocks away from Kelowna General Hospital and many pristine beaches on Okanagan Lake. Walk, ride or roll on the gorgeous Abbott Corridor and only minutes from downtown and the vibrant South Padosy Village. This location is literally at the heart of everything one would need. The current owner occupied 1 bedroom home has had many upgrades and fully livable if someone wanted to collect some rent while holding before developing the lot. Rear Levitt Lane access provides convenient parking in behind the fenced backyard and good access for new development plan. Seize this unique opportunity to own a property with endless possibilities. This is a stand alone development property ready to go with no connected properties involved. Hard to find lots this big with rear lane in this location that offers the potential for multiple units under new zoning guidelines. (id:6769)
