

104 Francis Drive Enderby British Columbia

Enderby / Grindrod

$949,900

Bright, spacious, and incredibly versatile--this is a home that checks boxes most properties can't. Flooded with natural light, the generously sized rooms create an open, comfortable feel that's perfect for everyday living. Meticulously maintained and move-in ready, this home offers both pride of ownership and long-term value. Parking and storage are next level, featuring an oversized double garage plus a separate oversized 1.5-car garage on a lower level--ideal for vehicles, hobbies, or a workshop setup. In-floor heating adds efficient, consistent comfort throughout. With two self-contained suites, the flexibility here is exceptional--perfect for added rental income, multi-generational living, or a smart investment strategy. Step outside and take in incredible city views that elevate the experience and remind you why location matters. Close to schools, shopping, and daily amenities, this home also benefits from the lifestyle Enderby is known for: a strong sense of community, easy access to nature and the Shuswap River, and a relaxed pace of life without sacrificing convenience. Homes offering this level of space, income potential, and functionality don't come along often. (id:6769)
