

106 West Enderby Road Enderby British Columbia

Enderby / Grindrod

$725,000

FANTASTIC FAMILY HOME on a fully usable .25-acre lot in a sought-after Enderby neighbourhood, close to the school and all amenities. The backyard is made for enjoying, with well-maintained chicken and other animal habitats, a playground, above-ground pool and established garden area featuring two apple trees, blackberries, strawberries, raspberries, bell peppers, tomatoes, carrots and several other vegetables. Tons of parking with two separate pass-throughs providing access to the backyard, plus a detached workshop/garage with concrete floors, 220 power, insulation and gas heat. Inside, you'll find plenty of recent updates including quartz countertops, trim, doors and paint. The open-concept upper level features high-end vinyl plank flooring throughout, newer appliances including a gas stove, and a recently added custom floating breakfast nook. Two large living areas, one up and one down, each feature their own fireplace, providing plenty of space for the whole family. A separate entrance and summer kitchen are already in place, adding even more flexibility to this well-rounded property. (id:6769)
