

10921 92 Street Peace River Alberta

Lower West Peace

$229,000

You might think that all the great homes are taken and at this price this one won't last long either - for peace of mind you need to see this home...with 5 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, fully finished basement, double detached powered insulated and heated garage, fenced backyard, back alley access, close to parks and playgrounds plus loads of renovations already done in the past with some new - including shingles, vinyl siding, windows, hardwood flooring, cabinets in the nicely finished kitchen, newer bathroom paint refresh etc. This home will stand out and above from the rest of the market. The location is great with a large park, shinny/regular hockey rink, tennis court and a general kids playground all within a block or two. The area is quiet and low key and the dyke walking trail is just behind so you have lots of out side activities to do if you want This is an attractively price home and will fit the budget of many new home buyers.
