

1116 Naramata Road Penticton British Columbia

Uplands/Redlands

$13,500,000

Welcome to the Duncan Vineyard Estate, a timeless heritage tracing back to the 1800s. This exclusive offering is one of the last remaining authentic vineyard legacies in the Okanagan Valley. Perched upon 42 pristine acres of fertile land, with 7 acres of award-winning Chardonnay and Merlot vines, plus at least 17 acres remain for planting. Take in the breathtaking views that span across two lakes and face directly westward at sunset. This idyllic winery location offers boundless opportunities, with 34 acres falling outside the agricultural land reserve. Can you envision creating a collection of premier home sites on the coveted Naramata Bench, surrounded by world-class wineries and just a short five-minute drive from the heart of Penticton? This extraordinary property awaits, offering the perfect blend of heritage and modern luxury for a world-class winery, home sites, or perhaps a boutique hotel.
