

12290 STURGEON POINT Road Vanderhoof British Columbia

$565,000

155 acre property with a four bedroom family home, located an easy 15 minute drive from Vanderhoof. The land offers approximately 40 acres in meadow hay, some pasture, a creek running through the property, and a forested area. The home has a newly renovated kitchen with a large island, plenty of cabinets and counter space, and tons of natural light. Other great features of this home include a double garage, large mud room, sprawling living room, a den, and a separate outside basement entry. Recent updates include a new dishwasher, new stove and hood fan, updated electric furnace, updated roof, and some new flooring and lighting. (id:6769)
