Lakeview Heights

$1,049,000

Nestled on a private lot in the heart of Lakeview Heights, this distinctive West Coast Contemporary home offers a rare blend of privacy, character, and location—just off the Westside Wine trail. Surrounded by mature trees and elevated to capture stunning views, this home feels like a cozy, spacious treehouse retreat—perfectly tucked away in nature, yet close to everything. The low-maintenance yard enhances the relaxed lifestyle. The lower level features three bedrooms and office, all positioned to soak in panoramic views. With a versatile layout, this level could easily be converted into an in-law or full suite for added income potential. Two bathrooms have been fully renovated with fresh, modern finishes that blend seamlessly with the home's warm, natural charm. A custom cedar sauna adds a unique element, completing a peaceful atmosphere. Upstairs, you'll find a spacious living room and a sunken conversation pit wrapped around a classic wood-burning fireplace—ideal for cozy evenings. The primary suite is located in the loft with an ensuite, walk-in closet, and its own private deck—perfect for morning coffee or stargazing at night. The expansive front deck is a true standout, offering breathtaking views from downtown Kelowna to Peachland. Attached to the home are both a workshop & garden shed, providing plenty of space for tools, hobbies, and storage plus Hot tub ho...
