

126 Grandview Street Penticton British Columbia

Uplands/Redlands

$924,900

Incredible Lot. Prime Location. Exceptional Opportunity. This is a rare chance to secure a generous 0.271-acre lot (approx. 80 x 145 ft) in one of Penticton's most walkable and sought-after neighbourhoods--where lifestyle and long-term value intersect. Enjoy lake views stretching toward Peachland from the front and sweeping vineyard vistas of the Naramata Bench from the rear--a truly special setting that's becoming increasingly hard to find. The location is unbeatable. Step outside and you're moments from Okanagan Beach, the KVR Trail, Front Street's shops and restaurants, the Art Gallery, Ikeda Japanese Garden, the Yacht Club, and downtown Penticton's thriving craft brewery scene. Add in over 40 world-class wineries along the famed Naramata Bench just minutes away, and the lifestyle speaks for itself. The lot offers ample room for RV or boat parking, a large workshop or garage, and a spacious backyard ready for future plans. The existing home provides renovation or holding potential, but the true value here is the land, the views, and the location. Whether you're looking to build your dream home, invest, or secure a premium property for the future, opportunities like this in the heart of the South Okanagan are few and far between. (id:6769)
