66- Acre Retired Mink Farm with Versatile Agricultural Potential!! Discover the possibilities with this 66-acre former mink farm, offering a mix of cleared pastureland and forested areas. The property includes 2 spacious barns that can be refurbished for a variety of agricultural ventures. A three-bedroom bungalow with an attached garage provides comfortable living, with direct access from the house to the barns for convenient farm operations. The cleared acreage is ideal for livestock or crop production, while the wooded portion offers additional opportunities for firewood or income. This property is being sold "As Is, Where Is" due to a Power of Sale process, with no warranties included. Such a great opportunity for those looking to repurpose an established farm for new agricultural endeavors! (id:6769)
