

13890 Oyama Road Lake Country British Columbia

Lake Country East / Oyama

$1,099,000

Located in the picturesque setting of Oyama, this sprawling 0.49 acre property features incredible lake views and endless potential. This three bedroom, three bathroom home features a great layout, and some thoughtful updates, and has expansive yard and outdoor space. The living room welcomes you with a gas fireplace framed by two picture windows. The kitchen features stainless steel appliances & pantry, and opens onto the dining area. A picturesque, full width patio provides the perfect place to relax and take in the world-class views. The primary bedroom features a half ensuite bathroom, and is perfectly positioned to the lake. A second bedroom, full bathroom, and laundry room finish the main level. Downstairs is a generous recreation/family room with another gas fireplace. There is also a large third bedroom and a gorgeous renovated bathroom with tile shower and heated floors. There is an attached garage plus a massive storage room, in addition to a detached carport - plenty of room for all the toys. This property boasts multiple sheds and shops with power, plus a fun cabin for the kids, and extensive flower beds and gardens. This property is offered with an existing RV, fully hooked up with its own patio. (id:6769)
