

1420 Graham Road Kelowna British Columbia

Rutland South

$745,000

Offering exceptional parking, versatile living spaces & a convenient Rutland South location, this four bedroom, two bathroom home presents an appealing opportunity for buyers seeking space, functionality & flexibility. With two driveways, there's ample room for multiple vehicles, recreational toys & trailers, complemented by an attached single-car garage for additional storage. Drive-through access leads to a flat, fully fenced backyard, offering plenty of room to enjoy outdoor living, entertain or explore the potential of further enhancing the space. Inside, fresh paint & new flooring throughout create a refreshed, move-in-ready feel, with opportunity to personalize further over time. The upper level features two bedrooms, a full bathroom & bright, comfortable living spaces. Downstairs, two additional bedrooms, a second full bathroom & secondary kitchen & living room provide added versatility for multi-generational living, extended family, guests or the convenience of having a second cooking space to suit your household's needs. Within walking distance of Spring Valley Middle School & close to Mission Creek Trails, Costco, Superstore, Orchard Park Shopping Centre, transit & everyday amenities, this property offers a compelling combination of parking, practicality & potential in a central Kelowna location.
