Oliver Rural

$749,900

Set on 0.77 of an acre, just 15 minutes from town, this 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom home unfolds like a quiet retreat where everyday living meets the rhythm of nature. With 1,759 sq ft of well-designed space, the home offers a comfortable and functional layout, warmed by a pellet stove and protected by a newer roof overhead. Step outside and the story truly begins. The deck opens to expansive views, where nature surrounds you and the landscape stretches wide. Here, mornings may start with coffee in hand while eagles and hawks glide overhead, and evenings settle into stillness as the light fades across the valley. The property feels larger than its 0.77 acre size, thanks to adjacent park land that preserves both privacy and the view. With no neighboring development to interrupt the setting, the land offers a sense of space that is increasingly hard to find. A detached two bay garage, secured storage shed, and ample storage provide room for tools, equipment, and the gear that comes with an outdoor lifestyle. The backyard remains private and tucked away, offering a quiet place to unwind. Located close to recreation trails and crown land, this home invites exploration while still being within easy reach of town. It is a setting suited to those seeking a country feel with manageable land and a connection to the natural surroundings. (id:6769)
