Oliver Mount Baldy

$450,000

This turn-key Linwood ski cabin on Mount Baldy combines mountain living with strong investment potential as a primary residence, vacation getaway, or short-term rental. The three-bedroom, two-bathroom home features a south-facing layout designed to maximize natural light through large windows, highlighting the open main living area and vaulted ceilings. Built with clear room for future growth, the framed lower level includes an unfinished basement with laundry facilities and plumbing already installed for an additional bathroom, making it ideal for a future suite. Relax and unwind after a day on the slopes in your own private hot tub. Modern construction, functional design, and move-in readiness provide long-term value and immediate equity building opportunities for both homeowners and investors. Located on Mount Baldy, this property offers direct access to winter sports on the mountain including skiing, snowboarding, snow shoeing, x-country skiing, tubing, hiking and more. (id:6769)
