

1685 Jonathan Road Kelowna British Columbia

Rutland North

$900,000

Perched on the Rutland Bench just below Tower Ranch Golf Course, this is the kind of home Kelowna summers are built around - big views of the city, the valley, and even the lake, a covered composite deck, and plenty of room for parking all the toys - Okanagan life at its finest! Set in a quiet area just minutes to Orchard Park Mall, but in a safe, family friendly neighbourhood, the location checks every box. Don't let the 1974 build year fool you. In 1997, this home was completely gutted - all new plumbing, wiring, insulation, and windows. The mechanical bones run 20+ years newer than most comparable homes in the area. The bright main level was made for living. Large windows pour natural light into every corner, a stone-surround gas fireplace anchors the living room, and the kitchen features updated appliances, built-in pantry, and bar seating perfect for family gatherings. Three bedrooms up makes it ideal for families. Outside, low-maintenance synthetic lawn and a xeriscaped backyard mean your weekends stay yours, but there's still lawn to kick a soccer ball! The composite deck was built for summer entertaining, a new roof is overhead, and the views of the valley and city lights never get old. Downstairs delivers serious bonus space - a massive rec room with wood-burning fireplace, 3-piece bath, an extra bedroom, laundry, and storage - you don't know it yet but you need thi...
