

3719 WOODSDALE Road 17 Lake Country British Columbia

Lake Country South West

$839,900

Bright, modern, upscale 3-bedroom, 4-bathroom townhouse with over 2000 sq. ft of living space. This unique design has maximum privacy with minimal shared walls and three outdoor spaces. The main level features oversized windows, wide-plank wood flooring & an open-concept kitchen with stainless steel appliances, gas range, white upper cabinetry and direct access to a patio for barbecuing or your morning coffee. Upstairs, the primary suite includes a spa-inspired ensuite with in-floor heating, plus two additional bedrooms & full bath. The lower level offers a versatile family room that opens to a pet-friendly, fenced yard with grass, garden space & patio stone—ideal for pets, kids, or a vegetable/flower garden. There is a large rooftop deck offering privacy for entertaining, stargazing, or enjoying a summer evening glass of wine, with a great view of sunsets, the mountains, and even a peekaboo view of Wood Lake. Additional features include central air, gas furnace, central vac, double garage with hose bib, upgraded lighting, dimmers, and utility sink in lower bathroom with potential for a pet washing area. Pride of ownership is evident in this meticulously maintained home. The location is amazing and ideal for an active lifestyle, steps away from the Rail Trail where you can walk along Wood Lake, with established paths for a bike around the lake or all the way to Vernon or Ke...
