

172 MCGOWAN Road Oliver British Columbia

Oliver Rural

$525,000

THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE HOME - What would Dorothy say? We think she would agree, the 1306 SF, two-bedroom, one-bathroom home that is on its own 9147 SF lot, backing onto a country vineyard is a perfect situation. Privacy and lifestyle bask in southern sun light all year long. Completely flat and fenced, it features a patio, gardens, and space for BBQ - bring your pets and let the good times roll. Garage has been enclosed to create extra floor space, which is great for a home office/business or a separate suite for family members needing their own space. This home has no stairs and would be excellent for those with mobility issues. Or disassemble the salon and bring your garage back for your collector car or bike. Potential is endless here. Great starter house or excellent retirement home, it has room to spread out, is bright and rural, and is minutes away from the town of Oliver with quick access to the highway. This home has new septic system, taxes are low. Parking for 3 or more vehicles is street parking. Do you need a wood-burning fireplace? It is possible here again. Enjoy the lifestyle options of the region, wineries, race track, airport, hiking trails, world class cycling routes, KVT and Oliver Wine District moments away even a district hospital. Come and get it, its what you want. (id:6769)
