

1770 MARKAY Drive Vanderhoof British Columbia
$479,000

Nicely updated home on 5 acres with a workshop in town limits with 5 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, and a fully finished basement. Several updates have been done including the roof, siding, windows (all except 4), kitchen, bathrooms, flooring, and the septic system was redone in 2014. This home boasts an open concept design with a spacious rec room, family room and mud room in the basement. Outside there is a large double carport, a portable building with a concrete floor, power and a heater that is being used for a shop, a 24'X50' wired 4-bay pole shed, 14'X16' gazebo with cement floor, several sheds, 2 animal shelters, and a wood shed. Other great features include A/C in the main living area upstairs, a sundeck, balcony off the primary bedroom, water softener, central vacuum & a cold room. (id:6769)
