1770 MARKAY Drive Vanderhoof British Columbia
$479,000

Nicely updated home on 5 acres with 5 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a fully finished basement, and a workshop. Several updates have been done including a brand new furnace (2025), roof, siding, windows (all except 4), kitchen, bathrooms, flooring, and the septic system was redone in 2014. This home boasts a nice open concept design with A/C on the main floor, a large sun deck, a balcony off the primary bedroom, water softener, central vac, cold room, and a spacious rec room and mud room with a separate entry in the basement. Outside there is a large double carport, a portable building with a concrete floor, power and a heater that is being used for a shop, a 24'X50' wired 4-bay pole shed, 14'X16' gazebo with cement floor, several sheds, 2 animal shelters, and a wood shed.
