

1960 Northern Flicker Court 18 Kelowna British Columbia

McKinley Landing

$1,185,000

Clean lines, warm light, and a forest at your back in this 2,085 square foot mid-century modern home was designed to feel calm the moment you step inside. Construction at July 2026 is just completing drywall therefore 2026 possession may be possible. The main level opens around a contemporary fireplace and is bright, easy to live in whether it's a quiet Tuesday or a full house on Saturday. The kitchen anchors it all with quartz counters, an oversized island, and real room to cook while people gather. The primary suite sits on this level too with no stairs to navigate. Downstairs, a fully self-contained one-bedroom legal suite with its own private entrance gives you options. Guests, extended family, or income. Short-term rentals are permitted under city regulations, so the investment case here is a strong one. Then there's the setting. You're steps from the best of McKinley Beach - the trail network, the dog park, the water itself. With the community pool, playground, tennis and pickleball courts, and the community garden, and it starts to feel less like an address than a way of living with a private lot backing onto the forest.
