Few homes in the Highlands catch the exposure this one does. Sweeping mountain views by day give way to city lights & moonrise views every night, from one of the best-positioned lots in the neighbourhood. Meticulously maintained & move-in ready, this home reflects genuine pride of ownership throughout. The open-concept main floor is anchored by 12-foot ceilings, hardwood flooring & custom feature walls, with large windows drawing in natural light & framing the views. A gas fireplace warms the living room, while the family-sized dining area flows easily for everyday living & entertaining. The kitchen is finished with solid wood cabinetry, a walk-in pantry, beverage centre & newer appliances, as functional as it is inviting. A textured accent wall greets you at the entry, setting the tone for the quality found throughout. A versatile den, a second bedroom & the primary suite complete the main floor. The primary offers direct deck access, a walk-in closet & ensuite, while the adjoining covered patio, fitted with a privacy screen, is the spot to take in those incredible mountain & city views. Downstairs, the walk-out lower level offers real flexibility: a large family room with bar area, a media room ideal for a home theatre, two additional bedrooms, a full bathroom & a large storage room, all opening to a covered patio below. Outside, the spacious, low-maintenance backyard is p...
