$312,000

One of a kind, log home built in 2000. These owners are ready for the next chapter and don't need this much house anymore. This Ponderosa Pine Log home with a vaulted "A" frame living room/dining room and kitchen is a very spacious living design. Located on the same floor is the Master bedroom, 4 pce bathroom and laundry room. The third level has two bedrooms, 3pce bathroom and a unique family room/loft overlooking the second level living area. The ground level has a double garage heated and insulated. The same level has a large storage utility area and another future bedroom/office or additional storage room and a 2 pce bathroom. This home has three raised decks and one more ground level. This one truly needs to be seen. (id:6769)
