

2066 Cortina Drive Kelowna British Columbia

Black Mountain

$1,550,000

For more information, please click Brochure button. Welcome to 2066 Cortina Drive on Kirschner Mountain, a brand-new home surrounded by nature, panoramic valley views, and the quiet beauty of Kelowna's hillside community. Offering 6 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, including a self-contained 2-bedroom registered suite with private side entrance, this thoughtfully designed home delivers both comfort and functionality across every level. The open-concept main floor features large windows, high ceilings, and bright living and dining spaces that connect seamlessly to a covered Sierra Stone deck for year-round enjoyment. The primary suite is accented with matching white oak finishes, while a sliding barn door opens to a well-designed ensuite and walk-in closet with double vanity, stone finishes, and smart storage solutions. The lower level offers a 2-bedroom registered suite plus an additional bedroom, bathroom, and family room with direct access to the exceptionally large backyard—a rare find with room for a pool, patio, and outdoor entertaining. Located less than five minutes from golf, schools, and everyday amenities, and only 15 minutes to downtown Kelowna, UBCO, and the airport, or 30 minutes to Big White. Immersed in nature and surrounded by stunning viewpoints and trails, this home offers an exceptional outdoor lifestyle in one of Kelowna's most desirable and growing communities...
