

2113 34 Street Vernon British Columbia

Mission Hill

$484,900

Character home with tons of charm. This home is packed with craftsman charm and a fantastic home for a first-time buyer or investor. Boasting original hardwood floors, oversized trim throughout the entire freshly painted home, original stained-glass windows, wood stairs with banister and the original French pocket doors leading into the front room which could be converted into an office/den. High ceilings, penny tiles, arched ceilings upstairs; you get it all! Enter the foyer into a large flex/den/dining room which leads you to the kitchen + nook. A brand new 4-pce bathroom + laundry room complete the main floor. Upstairs you'll find three bedrooms and a half bath. There is a tranquil backyard that is set up beautifully for outdoor living with a raised patio for dining & BBQing. This completely fenced yard even boasts a pergola for your relaxing needs. The back-alley access allows for additional parking or convert that space into more yard space for your gardens & toys. The large shed in the back yard is convenient for extra storage. This cute home is close to all amenities, hospital, parks, dining out, schools, shopping...very convenient location. Take a walk through this gem and fall in love. (id:6769)
