

Upper Coverdale New Brunswick

$424,900

New Brunswick Real Estate Board

Gorgeous four bedroom home on one acre with over 2400 square feet of finished space, plus double attached garage! Located in quiet and desirable Upper Coverdale, less than 20 minutes from Moncton, and less than 5 minutes from Salisbury for restaurants, schools, libraries, and shopping. The home is the pinnacle of privacy, with trees all around separating it from the road and neighbours. The yard is mostly cleared, with space for children to play, for families to grow food, and for chickens to roam. The lot was recently graded to keep water away from the home for years to come. The house has been renovated extensively: all new windows and doors, new roof, new decks, a new kitchen, a new en-suite bathroom, all new baseboard heaters, a new mini-split, a finished basement, and more. The main living-space of the house has a living room/family room combo, as well as a brand new kitchen, and a sunken window-filled dining room. Upstairs, three bedrooms were converted into two very large bedrooms, and there is a potential to split one back up very easily. Downstairs, there are two conforming bedrooms with egress windows. The basement is also fully finished, with a large office, a smaller office or library, and a very large rec room. There is still plenty of room for storage also, with a large storage/utility room in the basement, and a double attached garage! An absolute must see, th...
