$699,900

Situated in the family-oriented community of Juniper Heights, this four-bedroom, two-bathroom home combines functional design with recent interior refinements. The main living areas are defined by hardwood floors that bring a high-end, durable feel to the space, while fresh paint and updated trim provide a crisp, modern finish throughout. The layout is optimized for versatility, offering four spacious bedrooms that easily accommodate a growing family, a home office, or guest room.
