

2533 Copper Ridge Drive West Kelowna British Columbia

Smith Creek

$979,900

Welcome to this beautifully maintained, custom-built one-owner home offering stunning lake views and exceptional privacy in a desirable cul-de-sac location. South-east facing and surrounded by beautiful landscaping, this property is truly special, with no homes directly behind you. The front yard features a charming fountain, full irrigation and mature landscaping, while the fully fenced backyard provides a private and secure space for pets and outdoor enjoyment. Inside, the bright and spacious main level features 3 bedrooms, vaulted ceilings in the living room, large windows, a gas fireplace and a well-designed layout filled with natural light. Enjoy the outdoors from two upper decks and two lower patios, including a covered rear deck and covered lower patio-- perfect for relaxing or entertaining in any season. Phantom screens add to the comfort and functionality. The lower level offers a fantastic 2-bedroom in-law suite with its own separate laundry, providing excellent flexibility for family or guests. A thoughtful combination of laminate and tile flooring as well as carpet on the stairs, along with quality finishes throughout, adds warmth and practicality. A rare opportunity to own a custom home with lake views, privacy, beautiful outdoor spaces and no neighbours behind! (id:6769)
