McKinley Landing

$1,690,000

A rare McKinley Landing retreat.. this custom Fawdry-built home is set on an exceptional 0.998-acre property with expansive Okanagan Lake views and the space to create your own private estate experience. Designed for both quiet mornings, soaking in breathtaking sunsets and effortless entertaining, the main level embraces the West facing scenery with natural light-filled living spaces, maple hardwood and a cozy fireplace. Chef's kitchen includes stone countertops, ample storage and well planned space throughout. Three upstairs bedrooms offer an ideal family layout, including the oversize primary with an ensuite bathtub fit for max relaxation with a private view. The fully finished basement adds incredible flexibility for family recreation, guests, or potential suite use. This property's graded driveway brings you down to ample parking with space for an RV or large boat. Irrigated gardens invite beautiful blooms and wildlife alike, with front yard space for a game or two. Nearly an acre of land invites you to imagine a pool, outdoor play, and a grounded lifestyle with potential for future subdivision adding another layer of opportunity. This immaculately kept home is a special offering for those seeking privacy, scale, craftsmanship and the quintessential Okanagan lifestyle. This isn't your cookie-cutter build, you're going to love making memories here! (id:6769)
