

2630 Rufli Road West Kelowna British Columbia

Westbank Centre

$1,900,000

Nestled on 5.45 acres of picturesque ALR land, this exceptional property offers breathtaking lake views and unmatched privacy on a quiet dead end street while still being conveniently close to everything. With 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, this home is designed for both comfort and functionality, featuring vaulted ceilings and gorgeous wood beams that add warmth and character to the space. The lower level presents a fantastic opportunity for a home-based business, offering flexibility for entrepreneurs or creatives looking for workspace. A triple car garage and ample parking ensure convenience for residents and guests alike, while the potential to add a suite opens the door to additional income or extended family living. For those who dream big, shop plans for a 50ft x 80ft space are already on file, making it ideal for business operations or personal projects. This property is overflowing with opportunity, offering endless possibilities for work, play, and investment. A rare find in an unbeatable location (id:6769)
