Coalmont-Tulameen

$893,000

Welcome to a truly rare Tulameen retreat where history, heart, and versatility come together just steps from Otter Lake. Set on a treed 0.28-acre lot, this special property offers three distinct structures, thoughtfully placed for privacy, function, and a true sense of place. The original log cabin captures the spirit of early Tulameen living, featuring an open living space, cozy bedroom, pantry, and quaint kitchen area - perfect for unplugged weekends, creative use, or nostalgic summer stays. A hand-pump water feature completes the authentic cabin experience. At the centre of the property is an approx. 900 sq ft shop/garage, fully powered with abundant lighting, outlets, and 220 service - ideal for toys, projects, gatherings, or hobbies. Above, a finished lofted bunkie offers a comfortable living area, generous bedroom, and convenient access to a nearby 3-piece bathroom ideal for guests, teens, or extended family - and especially convenient after a day at the beach and lake. The main home (built approx. 2006) provides bright year-round living with three bedrooms, a full bath, laundry, and an open main level filled with natural light. A lofted family room adds flexible space, while a new heat pump enhances comfort and efficiency. Outdoor living is effortless with covered patios, a firepit to gather around, room for boats, kayaks, RVs, and space for creating lasting, meaningful...
