Lakeview Heights

$1,499,900

Perched above Okanagan Lake in a private, tree-lined setting, this expansive residence offers a rare blend of space, views, and lifestyle. A paver stone driveway leads to a double garage with additional carport, setting the tone for this well-appointed home. The main level is designed for effortless living, with warm hardwood floors and oversized windows that frame panoramic lake, mountain, and city views. The kitchen features maple cabinetry, granite countertops, and quality appliances, opening to a bright dining area and nook with direct access to a covered deck with frameless glass railings, perfect for outdoor dining and quiet moments overlooking the water. The living room is anchored by a fireplace and surrounded by natural light, while the primary suite offers a walk-in closet and a spa-inspired 5-piece ensuite with heated floors. Upstairs, a spacious family room with deck access provides an ideal gathering space, complemented by additional beds, baths, and a flexible office/den. The lower level features an indoor pool framed by expansive windows and seamless walkout access to the patio and landscaped yard, creating a private, year-round retreat. A versatile flex space offers the perfect setting for a home gym. With multiple outdoor living areas, mature landscaping, and sweeping views from nearly every room, this property delivers a refined Okanagan lifestyle just ...
