Perched in the sought-after Smith Creek West community of West Kelowna, this immaculate 2021-built home delivers 3,200 sq ft of thoughtfully designed living -- with a south-facing wall of windows across all three levels framing panoramic views of Okanagan Lake, the mountains, vineyards, and city lights. The entire upper level is devoted to the primary suite -- a true retreat with the privacy, space, and elevated views most homes simply can't offer. Laundry is conveniently on the same floor. Downstairs, the fully finished walk-out basement features a massive rec room and two additional bedrooms -- perfect for older kids who want their own domain, or guests who may never want to leave. Easy suite potential as well! You'll also appreciate the large mechanical room with generous storage, and the freshly epoxied garage floor. Outside, low-maintenance landscaping means your weekends are spent on the lake, the nearby Smith Creek trails, or the patio -- not pushing a mower. This home personifies the Okanagan lifestyle.
