Great family home with attached 21x22 garage on a lovely greenbelt lot in Porter Creek. Contemporary exterior with welcoming entry, sunken living area with wood fireplace and formal dining. The oak kitchen features an eating nook with access to the back deck making it a great home for entertaining - steps down to a family room with garden doors to back deck. The den is nestled in by 1/2 bath with oversized walk-in closet and laundry room with access to garage from main level. Lower level with large recreation room and another room perfect for home gym or oversized craft area. Upper level has a master bedroom with own martini deck looking over the backyard. Ensuite with large mirrored closet, two more bedrooms, one of which has a lovely private deck off the front of home, and another full bath complete this level. Home was well loved and needs a new owner to take on the task of returning it to its former glory. (id:6769)
