Glenrosa

$799,000

INVESTOR AND FAMILY ALERT! This well-maintained home in beautiful Glenrosa offers plenty of space and options for growing families, first-time buyers, multi-generational families, and investors. The upper floor features a large kitchen with stainless appliances and more than enough counter space and cabinetry for your family. It opens into the bright living room, giving a really nice, open feel to the main living space. The dining room opens to the deck and the large bonus room above the garage. The primary bedroom has a nice 2-piece ensuite. Two more bedrooms and a lovely main bath with two sinks round out the upper floor. The lower level features two massive bedrooms, a large family/rec room, summer kitchen, and laundry with a newer washer and dryer. The laundry room also accommodates a 2-piece bathroom in addition to another full bathroom. There are entrances to the lower level in addition to the main entrance: one through the garage and the other off the mudroom/den. The one-car garage provides great storage or parking space. Speaking of parking space... the drive-through driveway plus parking areas on both ends of the lot provide tons of space for vehicles, boat and RV's. The home is located in a great area, very close to hiking trails in Glen Canyon and within easy walking distance to Glenrosa Elementary School. The home is currently tenanted by a fantastic family who ...
