You're going to love both the location and the layout of this fully finished 1819 sq ft bungalow in the quiet, family-friendly neighbourhood of Westpark in Fort Saskatchewan. With 4 bedrooms, a 23x23 double attached garage, and a backyard that feels like your own private park backing onto a picturesque walking trail, this home has room for everyone. Inside feels like a page out of Pinterest with a white kitchen, granite counters, mosaic tile backsplash, hardwood, and ceramic tile throughout. The main floor offers a spacious living room with a gas fireplace, formal dining, and a huge kitchen with a prep island and garden doors leading to the yard. You'll also find 2 generous bedrooms, a 4-piece bath, newer windows, and newer exterior doors. The basement features a large family room, massive den, laundry area, 2 more bedrooms (one with a 2-piece ensuite), plus a 3 piece bath. Tons of storage and a layout perfect for family living.
