

136 Meadow Crescent 37 Enderby British Columbia

Enderby / Grindrod

$299,500

In the picturesque town of Enderby BC, nestled in the Mountain Valley, you will find a community of mobile homes for individuals aged 55 and above, along with a new modular Lake Country Homes residence awaiting your arrival. This home features an open floor plan where the kitchen is the heart of the home, with an eat-in island seamlessly connecting to the living room, with large windows and beautiful floors. Enjoy a spacious main bedroom with a full ensuite, allowing for ample space to move around or even accommodate extra furniture, like a hobby desk or reading chair, generous closets, and a large laundry room for added storage to maintain neatness. There is also a spare bedroom and two recently constructed wooden porches. Energy-efficient windows, brand new appliances and construction keep the monthly costs down. The area is peaceful and welcoming, offering a patch of land for gardening and enhancements for you to create an ideal outdoor living area. With convenient access to shopping, medical facilities, and expansive views of the mountains under the vast open sky, this property could become your tranquil retreat during retirement. Schedule a viewing today. (id:6769)
