

3832 33RD Street Osoyoos British Columbia

Osoyoos

$549,900

Wake up to golden sunrises over Osoyoos Lake, framed by rolling vineyards and uninterrupted mountain views--this East Bench property is all about lifestyle. Tucked into a peaceful, vineyard-surrounded setting, this unique offering captures the essence of Osoyoos living: quiet, private, and immersed in nature. With no light pollution, your evenings transform into a stargazer's dream, while warm days invite you to relax, garden, or explore the nearby wineries, trails, and lake. The property features a charming 2-bedroom, 1-bath 1967 single-wide--more like a cozy cabin than a traditional mobile--perfect as a summer getaway or a comfortable base while you plan and build your dream home. Mature fruit trees and garden space add to the rural charm, offering a true connection to the land. Whether you're envisioning a future build or simply craving a serene escape with breathtaking views across the lake toward the mountains, this East Bench gem delivers a rare opportunity to enjoy the best of South Okanagan living--now and for years to come.
