

3981 DOBBIE Street Terrace British Columbia

$599,900

It's not everyday you find a home that's both grand and cozy at the same time! This 2012 log home offers a beautiful open living space with high vaulted living room ceilings, a pellet stove, large functional kitchen plus pantry. The wonderfully rustic staircase leads you to the loft where you'll find a huge primary bedroom with ensuite & private deck. The basement provides ample space for storage, utilities, laundry and workshop space. It also boasts an exterior door. The yard in bloom is a sight! With the wrap around deck and lovely wooden boardwalk the foliage & flowers make for a stunning oasis. There is a large partially enclosed deck with hot tub, garden sheds, a rustic guest cabin along with two large shelters (20'x20' and 40'x40') for all your outdoor storage needs. (id:6769)
