Oliver

$569,900

At the very top of Oliver, in the South Okanagan's most commanding residential address, sits a penthouse that feels less like a home and more like a private observatory atop the entire valley. From arrival, the elevation becomes more than just physical—it defines the experience. Perched on the highest floor in the entire town of Oliver this 2-bedroom + Den residence unfolds beneath soaring ceilings where light and space stretch outward as naturally as the landscape beyond the glass. Every room carries the same uninterrupted gift: Views. Morning light rises over the hills, while evenings dissolve into the mountains and desert sky. It's a perspective that follows you from room to room never once letting go. The main living area extends seamlessly to not one, but two covered deck areas-- Out here, the South Okanagan air becomes part of the design. Solar taming blinds allow the deck space to shift with the day, balancing sun, shade, and privacy. Inside, the kitchen is grounded in an island-inspired layout, finished with solid surface countertops and newer stainless steel appliances--functional, clean, and designed for both everyday living and effortless entertaining. The large primary suite continues the sense of scale. A five-piece ensuite, walk in closet all while featuring a dedicated sitting area retreat within the larger home. Practicality is handled without compromise...
